VERTEX INDUSTRY EVENT

Wednesday 23rd November 2022

Gripped Aerial Adventure Park, Hobbledown Heath, Hounslow

This year's industry event will focus on people.

From youth employment, neurodivergence, therapeutic practice to competency.

It's all about us and making the most of who we are and all our wonderfully beautiful differences.

We will be looking at how can we be better for everyone. Better employers and better providers of high adrenaline and high-risk off-ground activities. The world and our awareness as a society has developed to understand that we are not all the same, that we should value all and all are worthy. We have skills, competencies and qualities that enable us to stand out, be an individual and make the most of who we are.

Speakers

All the speakers will be at the venue for most of the day and will be happy to meet with you to explore how their work might support your organisation and operation.

James Wingerath – Youth Employment UK

James has over 20 years' experience working in the Private Training Providers and Awarding and End-Point Assessment Organisations market. In this time, he has witnessed several government initiatives and policies attempting to address youth unemployment and careers guidance. James works with several organisations supporting them with their youth recruitment strategies.

“The importance of structure, career advice and support is paramount to young people. Youth Employment UK plays a vital role in supporting young people with skills and careers support, decision making and connecting with employers. Therefore, giving youngsters an opportunity to explore specific careers.”

Outside of work James is heavily involved with the local football club and is a season ticket holder at Northampton Saints.

Kevin Mathieson – Over the Wall

Kevin is the CEO of the charity Over the Wall which provides residential therapeutic breaks throughout the UK to children living with chronic illness and their families. A former detective and Chief Police Officer, he has spent the last decade transforming the charity and developing its services to include the creation of digital camps and hospital outreach. Prior to COVID the charity was the winner of 4 consecutive Ofsted 'Outstanding' awards and numerous other charity accolades.

Much of his time is now spent seeking to create a permanent residential campus in England for use by Over the Wall and other charities/groups. He sits on the CEO Council of the SeriousFun Network.

Interests include motorcycling, skiing, and growing old disgracefully.

Nat Hawley – Exceptional Individuals

Nat is a life-long Neurodiversity champion and advocate for people with learning differences. Pride of Britain award and Autism Professional of the year nominee and recognised by HRH, The Prince of Wales for heroism, international fundraising, and public speaking for the rights of people with disabilities.

Nat leads Exceptional Individuals' corporate partnerships focused on diversity and inclusion and servicing neurodivergent job seekers to overcome unconscious bias.

Nat is responsible for the design and delivery of their Neurodiversity Employment Academy. Previous academies have partnered with the Department for Work and Pensions, UK and pharmaceutical company Rouche. Nat is incredibly passionate about bringing people together and celebrating the diversity of thought and enjoy nothing more than teaching individuals about the extraordinary gifts of a neurodiverse mind.

Loves the outdoors, carpentry, exploring our beautiful world, and mildly obsessed with building homes for bunny rabbits in spare time.

Daisy Rogers-Byrne – Senior Creative & Social Impact Strategist

Daisy is a creative social impact strategist, comms expert and DEI keynote speaker, who helps purpose-led brands create meaningful, positive change. She specialises in DEI & belonging, social impact, ESG and purpose-driven creative communications.

Daisy was recently named as one of the 'Top 50 Most Influential Neurodivergent Women of 2022'. Her work exists at the intersection of creativity and belonging - we cannot be what we cannot see. She has worked with brands including IKEA, H&M, Google, Oxfam GB, Brand Advance, Natures Way Foods and World Wide Generation. She has been a speaker for Museum of London, the Diversity Network, the Outdoor Industries Association, BrandWave, Inkpact and more.

She was the founder of Liberally, the UK's only non-profit creative social impact agency, amplifying minoritised voices. Established during lockdown 2020, Liberally championed communities across gender, race, ethnicity, age, disability and LGBTQ+, to create space to belong. Liberally closed in August 2022 due to the economic climate and lack of investment. Daisy continues to amplify minoritised voices on a consultancy basis.

Daisy coaches those marginalised due to gender, sexual orientation or neurodivergency to empower a growth mindset and/or strengthen their career and personal journeys. She is also a professional fine artist and writer, a proud gay woman and working mother of three.

You can find her catching waves on her longboard or SUP, sea swimming, planning her off-grid tiny house smallholding and rocking flip-flops year round.

EVENT INFORMATION

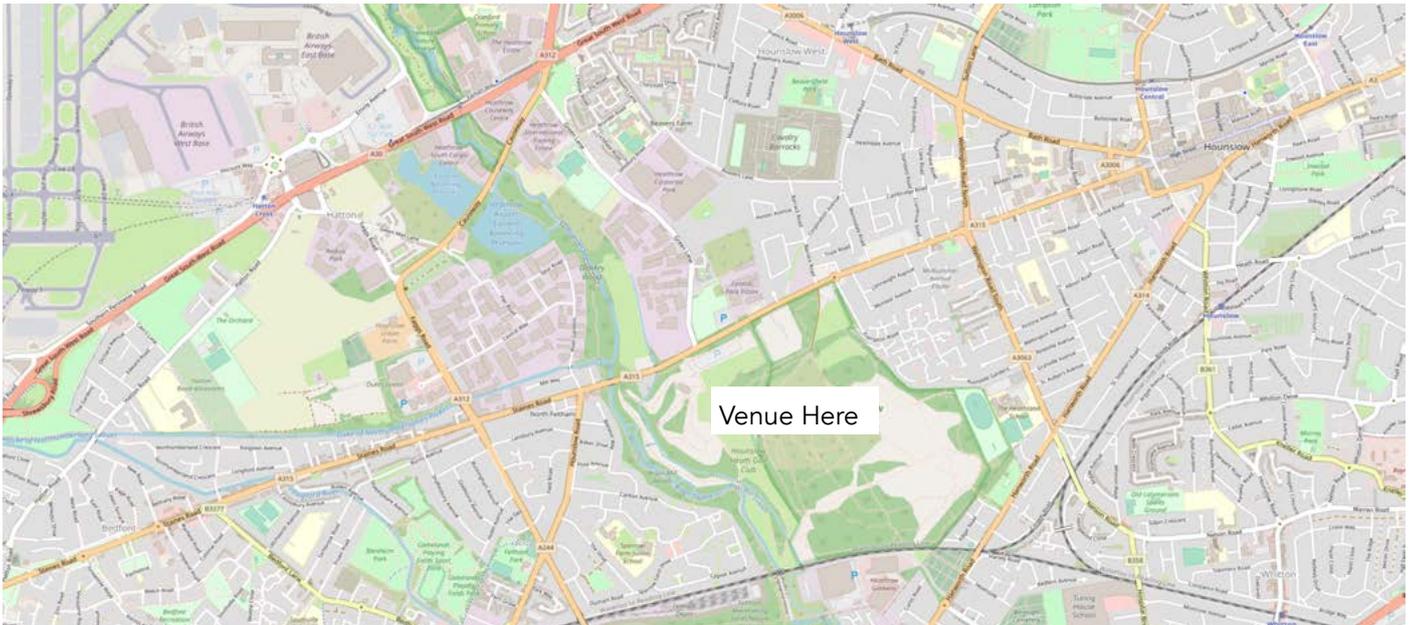

The event will be held at the newly opened Hobbledown Heath, which includes the Grippped Aerial Adventure Park with nets, bag jumps, powerfans, zip trekking course, adventure park course, crazy slides and much more! We expect to have just over 100 people in attendance on the day between delegates, speakers and trade stands.

COST: £65 per person plus VAT

LOCATION: Hobbledown Heath, Staines Road, Hounslow, TW14 0HH

The venue is here <https://www.begrippped.com/>

Google maps <https://goo.gl/maps/hKRFLsTBfR3j1BWo8>

BY CAR: Hobbledown Heath is located on Staines Road. Use postcode TW14 0HH to navigate your way to us via Google Maps, Waze or Satnav - the turning for the car park is opposite Ron Smith Recycling.

BY TRAIN: The nearest tube station is Hounslow Central which is on the Piccadilly line - 23 minutes journey time from Hammersmith. The nearest train stations are Feltham and Hounslow.

OVERNIGHT: There are plenty of hotels in and around the venue.

CAR PARKING: If you intend to drive then please include your car registration number on your booking form. This will allow you to park for free all day.

Please note that the car park is managed by a separate company and pay stations can be accessed within the car park. Parking will cost £1 per hour if you forget to tell us your car registration.

ON ARRIVAL: You can arrive between 8.30am and 9.30am
Make your way to the Play Barn where you will be asked to sign in and pick up your name badge. You will have time between 8.30am and 9.30am to speak to friends, colleagues and look at the trade stands. Make sure you are seated and ready to start by 9.30am

REFRESHMENTS: Hot and cold drinks will be available free of charge throughout the day.

LUNCH: Lunch will be between 12:30-2:30

A buffet style lunch will be provided to all delegates, speakers, and trade stands at 12:30pm in the Barn. If you have any allergies, please let us know on your booking form.

There will be a mixture of small and large tables available for you to sit with friends, colleagues and delegates during the breaks and lunch.

During lunch you can go on some of the Grippped activities for a small charge or take a tour of the site. Please say on the booking form if this is something that you would like to do.

THE SPACE: The Barn is a large indoor play area – you can see pictures here. We have exclusive use of the Barn for the whole day. It is a large open space so noise travels and echoes around.
